

ABOUT ETHNIC DINING

Discovering unusual restaurants that offer delectable dining is an adventure by itself. In most months, usually on a Saturday or Sunday evening, Ethnic Dinner leader, Odette, arranges for us to meet in such a place. Someone invariably asks Odette, "Where did you find this restaurant?" Often her response is that a friend had a birthday dinner there or someone told her about it. Having traveled to some of the most remote parts of the world, Odette can fill us in on the details, including spices, preparation and even how to dip, roll, or just pick up our menu choices and savor new flavors.

Odette R., Ethnic Dining Activity Leader, is a world traveler and adventurer, whose destinations span the well known to the obscure. Odette has guided us in sampling tastes from varied restaurants, including Greek, African, Indonesian, Japanese and more.
